artspring berlin 2024 – Zeige deine W_nde

artspring berlin 2024 - The Pankow Art Month

For the eighth time, artspring berlin invites you to experience a full month of creativity, which presents the many faces of the Pankow art world from 3rd May to 2nd June. During this time the district will be transformed into an art festival involving many unusual venues. Including the town hall, a clinic, a castle's park, an allotment garden, a theatre, a cinema and many more. In addition to all genres of fine art - painting, drawing, graphics, sculpture, installation, video, and performance, a further series of events are dedicated to literature and film. Within close reach and free of charge, more than 300 well-known, as well as young and lesser-known artists will show artworks in their studios.

The festival title "Zeige deine W_nde" is also an appeal to Pankow artists to submit their proposed contributions via an Open Call. Following on from Joseph Beuys' installation, "Show your Wound" this year's festival theme addresses the vulnerability of society and the individual pitched against an unsettling backdrop determined by war, growing social polarisation and populism. The notably, marked blank space in the title leaves room for interpreting resounding connotations such as wound, turning point, walls, which open further contexts of meaning.

Several group exhibitions form the central framework of the festival, bringing both local and international artistic positions together. The "Junge Szene–Am Start", an exhibition curated by students from the Kunsthochschule Weißensee, can be found in the Theater unterm Dach. With versatile expressive possibilities surrounding line being the subject of "Die komische Linie" in the Park-Klinik Weißensee. From May, the artspring PopUpStore will operate in its new home in the Rathaus-Center Pankow. A three-part show on the themes "TURN", "WOUND", "WALLS" presents Pankow artists. With reference to the festival theme and the 30th anniversary of Pankow town's twinning with Ashkelon in Israel is an exhibition with artists from Ashkelon combined with a documentary presentation in the vaulted cellar in the Gewerbehof of the alte Königstadtbrauerei. An open-air exhibition can be explored on foot at this year's artspring artwalk in the Bornholm I and II, Allotment Gardens, where works can be seen in the public community gardens and the individual plots. Artists who are acutely affected by the ongoing loss of studios in Berlin or who have already lost their workspaces are exhibiting at Rathaus Pankow.

The artspring film presents a curatorial selection of film works from film and video makers on three consecutive evenings at the Brotfabrik cinema. The curated artspring literature programme offers readings by various authors at several of the festival's exhibition venues.

The final highlight of the festival is the Open Studios weekend. During the weekend participating artists invite you into their workplaces against the backdrop of Berlin's precarious studio situation, which is characterised by the increasing disappearance of artistic creative spaces. Here the studio visit becomes a valuable opportunity to get close to the creation of art and to come into direct contact with the artists. Artists can be met surrounded by their work both in studio houses and in individually located studios.

artspring berlin is the only art festival in Berlin whose initiators and organisers are all artists themselves. Through its continuous activity over the past few years, it has developed into a large network whose contacts extend far beyond the borders of Berlin. The festival always focuses on topics that offer particular relevance to artistic debate and the artists themselves. With several new projects; including the PopUpStore in the Rathaus-Center Pankow, the artothek berlin in cooperation with the Kurt Tucholsky Library, art space FUGE in the Heinrich Böll Library and the annual light art festival in winter, artspring berlin also offers an art programme in Pankow throughout the year.
