ART – If you think Pankow hasn't got anything to offer beyond kid-friendly cafés, think again. This year's title 'Zeige deine W_nde' is a riff on Joseph Beuys' installation Show Your Wound and beckons artists and visitors to reflect on walls and wounds using art as a means to bridge the divide. The district's galleries, project spaces and public areas offer special exhibitions alongside concerts, performances and readings.

- Various locations. Through Jun 2. Details
